

Counting Collections

Materials: Zip-lock bags with various collections of objects – buttons, craftsticks etc.

1. Put the objects in your collection into groups. Each group must have the same number of objects.
2. How many different ways can you group the objects so that there are none left over?
3. Show how you many objects you have and how you counted them.